

COMMUNITY CONVERSATIONS

The Stories That Shape Us

The stories of our family and the experiences of our elders shape how we see ourselves and how we experience the world.

This free workshop will explore how oral history interviewing is different from other types of conversations, strategies for conducting rich and effective interviews, and best practices on recording and archiving oral histories.

This workshop will include pair interview exercises, so please be prepared to meet some new neighbors!

April 26, 2022 | 6:30 - 8:30PM
Stroum Jewish Community Center

Please register in advance at mercerisland.gov/communityconversations or scan here!

Sponsored by the City of Mercer Island

Presented in partnership with ONE MI, Do the Work MI,
the Stroum Jewish Community Center,
the Mercer Island Historical Society &
the WA State Jewish Historical Society.

